Web: <https://nomadjewelry.eu>

The user can contact the contractor's staff with any questions or comments related to data management via the contact details above.

The user has the right to request the correction or deletion of his incorrectly recorded data at any time.

Based on the Civil Code (Act V of 2013), the user can enforce his rights in court, and he can contact the National Data Protection and Freedom of Information Authority (NAIH) (1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11.) in case of a complaint regarding the data management practices of the data controller.

If the user provided third-party data during registration to use the service, or caused damage in any way while using the website, the contractor is entitled to claim compensation from the user. In such a case, the entrepreneur will provide all possible assistance to the acting authorities in order to establish the identity of the person who violated the law.

3. Remedies

Requests for legal remedies related to the management of the data described in this section are accepted by the entrepreneur.

a) Request for information about data management and correction of personal data

The user is Info tv. In accordance with § 14, you can request information about the management of your personal data, you can also request the correction of your personal data, and - with the exception of data management mandated by law - their deletion. The request for this purpose is received in writing by the contractor via postal or electronic contact. At the user's request, the contractor provides information about the data it manages, its source, the purpose, legal basis, duration of data management, and its activities related to data management. The contractor shall provide the information in writing in an understandable form as soon as possible, but no later than 25 days after the submission of the application. This information is free of charge if the information requester has not yet submitted an information request to the data controller for the same data set in the current year. In other cases, the contractor may determine reimbursement. If the personal data managed by the data controller does not correspond to reality, the user shall contact Info tv. Pursuant to § 14, you can request the correction of your data at the e-mail address info@nomadjewelry.eu.

b) Locking and marking

The entrepreneur locks the personal data if the user requests it, or if it can be assumed based on the information available that the deletion would harm the legitimate interests of the data subject. Locked personal data can only be processed as long as the data management purpose that precluded the deletion of personal data exists.

The contractor shall mark the personal data it manages if the data subject disputes its correctness or accuracy, but the incorrectness or inaccuracy of the disputed personal data cannot be clearly established.

c) Request for deletion of personal data

The entrepreneur deletes the personal data if its processing is illegal, and if the user informs Info tv. 14.§ c.), if it is incomplete or incorrect (and this state cannot legally be remedied), or if the purpose of the data management has ceased, or if it has been ordered by the court or the National Data Protection and Freedom of Information Authority. The user can request the deletion of their data at the e-mail address info@nomadjewelry.eu.

If the data controller does not comply with the user's request for correction, blocking or deletion, within 25 days of receiving the request, it must provide the factual and legal reasons for the refusal in writing, and also inform the user of the legal remedy in court, and the appeal to the National Data Protection and Freedom of Information Authority about the possibility.

d) Objection to the processing of personal data

The user can object to the processing of his personal data if

- the processing of personal data is only necessary to assert the rights or legitimate interests of the data controller, unless the data processing is mandated by law,
- personal data is used for the purpose of direct business acquisition, public opinion polls or scientific research,
- in other cases defined by law.

The contractor - with the simultaneous suspension of data management - examines the objection within the shortest time from the submission of the application, but no more than 15 days, and makes a decision on the validity of the objection, of which the applicant is informed in writing. If the protest is justified, the data controller will terminate the data management - including further data collection and data transmission - and block the data, as well as notify all those to whom the personal data affected by the protest was previously transmitted about the protest and the measures taken based on it. are obliged to take measures to enforce the right to protest. If the user does not agree with the data manager's decision regarding his objection, or if the data manager misses the above deadline, the user may appeal to the court within 30 days from the notification of the decision or the last day of the deadline available to the data manager.

The entrepreneur cannot delete the data of the data subject if the data management is ordered by law. However, the data cannot be forwarded to the data recipient if the data controller has agreed to the objection or the court has established the legitimacy of the objection.

e) Legal remedy at the NAIH

The user can turn to the National Data Protection and Freedom of Information Authority for legal redress if they suspect a violation of their rights.
